James Barton Design-Build Wins 2008 Chrysalis Award

Apple Valley remodeling firm, James Barton Design-Build, has been honored with a national Chrysalis award for excellence. The award was announced at the fifteenth annual Chrysalis Awards for Remodeling Excellence on June 11th at the Cobb Galleria Centre in Atlanta during the Southern Building Show.

The winning project is the home of John and Celia Guillemette in Rosemount, which competed in the category of “Kitchens under $40,000.” The project turned a dark, cramped kitchen into a spacious, inviting gathering space for family and friends.

Winners were selected from over 526 entries judged on overall design, creative use of space and materials, and degree to which the project enhanced the original structure. Judges were editors and writers of Better Homes & Gardens, Woman’s Day, Southern Living and Houseplans.com.

The Chrysalis Awards program, begun in 1994, recognizes the nation’s best work in seventeen general categories of residential remodeling, as well as regional and national Remodeler of the Year winners.
